

SPECIAL ATTENTION FORM

To help the Passport staff be as prepared as possible for ministry, please list anything you request our team pay special attention to within your group. This may include family crisis situations, physical limitations (mobility, sight, or hearing differences), unusual allergic reactions (food, bee stings), English as a second language, learning or behavioral differences, emotional or spiritual struggles, etc. This information will be handled carefully as a matter of prayer and assistance to our staff during the week, and will not go beyond the bounds of the Passport staff. Passport reserves the right to ask that an adult from your group assist your camper during Bible Study if we consider close individual attention in the camper's best interest.
